

Tony Park

Yonghyun.park@mail.utoronto.ca

Toronto, ON, M2N 5W8

647-702-5420

www.linkedin.com/in/tony-park-8b5313307

Summary of Qualifications

- Strong communication skills developed through private tutorings and leadership roles in volunteer programs
- Exceptional organizational and time-management skills proven by academic success and leadership responsibilities both in and out of school
- Strong creative vision and ability to develop engaging content through a deep understanding of current internet and social-media trends
- Quick to grasp new technologies demonstrated by mastery of various graphic design and video editing tools such as Canva, Pixlr, iMovie, and CapCut
- Effective team player with collaborative skills established by hands-on experience in leadership roles and community volunteering
- Proficiency in problem-solving and analytical thinking developed through tutoring mathematics and sciences

Education

Candidate, Honours Bachelor of Science (Co-op)

2024 - Present

University of Toronto Scarborough, Scarborough, ON.

- Computer Science Co-op

Experience

Marketing Associate

October 2024- Present

Association of Mathematical and Computer Science Students

- In charge of designs for various designs such as the club's banner, as well as contributing in designing graphics for the social media posts
- Manage social media accounts, handling messaging, posting stories, and ensuring active engagement
- Help brainstorm and create posts to promote various events and activities on their social media

Helper for Senior Home

February 2023 - June 2024

Global Youth Leaders

- Assisted elderly residents by providing companionship and helping them with daily tasks
- Supported staff with organizing activities and engaging with residents in a hospitable and compassionate demeanor to promote a sense of community within the home

Private Tutor

March 2021- Present

Self-employed

- Provided personalized instruction in mathematics, sciences and music, tailoring lesson plans to meet individual learning needs across various concepts
- Successfully prepared two students for their auditions, resulting in their acceptance into Cardinal Carter Academy for the Arts which is known for its prestigious arts program and high academic standing

Homework Club Leader

March 2020 - June 2024

Global Youth Leaders

- Led and mentored a group of 5 to 6 students, focusing on academic preparation for the upcoming year
- Successfully coordinated a diverse group of students through a lesson plan, ensuring each student felt supported and motivated throughout each term